Janet Bevirt Welcomed Southwest Hills Neighbors - We have 3,671 mailing addresses!

Here's the SHiNA Boundary Map with the new Youth House on Willamette St marked and two possible future subdivisions, on the east side of City View St and on 14.74 acres at 1880 McLean Blvd as suggested in the Weekly.

Janet introduced the SHiNA Board Members present and asked neighborhood association members to visit the SHiNA Website, Facebook and Nextdoor.

SHiNA Thanks: The Youth House for this meeting room opportunity.
 Also the Village School for lending us forty chairs.
 And Euphoria Chocolates who donated treats located in the kitchen.
 SHiNA also provided Lemonade.

Any Public Comments or Announcements? (3 minute maximum for 5 people)

- George Brown spoke about the Citizen's Elected Auditor verses the City's Appointed Auditor on the May Ballot.
- Brad Raffle and Steve Hecker showed interest in Map Your Neighborhood and Emergency Preparedness.
- Janet asked, Should West 29th Avenue have its speed lowered from 30 to 25 mph?
- Friends of Trees has free trees.
